

Ensuring that all General Election voting Locations have a Republican Voting Judge

Whereas, Nueces County had a noticeable improvement in Republican voting results after placing a Republican election official in every general election voting location and

Whereas, Individuals in Dallas County have witnessed Democrat voters attempt to vote multiple times; as they arrived at a polling location with several ID cards and

Whereas, Attempts to have an individual vote multiple ballots have been foiled by the presence of a Republican voting judge and

Whereas, The authority of a voting judge is great (Texas Election Code Chapter 32)

Therefore be it resolved that the SREC encourage all Republican County Chairs to appoint Republican judges or alternate judges at every general and special election voting location within their county.
